How to Run For The Arts:

1. Have your parent/guardian read the rules on this sponsor sheet, fill in your T-shirt size and sign in the bottom right hand corner.
2. Collect pledges from relatives, friends and neighbors you know. DO NOT ASK STRANGERS. Be sure to thank your sponsors for supporting the Run For The Arts. At the end of the pledge period, return your sponsor sheet to your school by deadline #1 (see below).
3. Have fun running on your school's Run day!
4. Collect pledged money from your sponsors and make sure their information is complete. Write the amount paid in the far right column. Turn in your sponsor sheet and money to your school by deadline #2 (see below), which is at the end of the collection period.

Be sure to pay close attention to special instructions from your school's Run For The Arts Coordinator and follow your school's Run schedule closely.

Missed deadlines will disqualify you from competition for prizes and awards.

5. TO THE SPONSOR: Please make checks payable to Young Audiences or Run For The Arts.

Your tax-deductible contribution helps support educational arts experiences for this student and others at the same school by providing artist residencies, workshops and performances. In order for your sponsorship to be valid, you must provide all of the information requested above.

Young Audiences, a non-profit organization governed by a volunteer Board of Directors, has been bringing the arts to schools since 1958. For more information, please visit our web site at www.ya-or.org or give us a call at 503.225.5900 or 360.693.1829.

Run For The Arts Rules

PARTICIPATION: Students, teachers, school staff, parents and other volunteers may participate in the Run For The Arts.

ELIGIBILITY: Only enrolled students are eligible for grand prizes.

DEADLINES: Each school will inform its participants of all deadlines associated with their Run For The Arts. Runners must meet all deadlines in order to be eligible for awards and prizes.

SCORES: Each participant's score is determined by the following formula:  $(2 \times \# \text{ Paid Sponsors}) + (\# \text{ Laps Completed}) = \text{Score}$ .

T-SHIRTS AND OTHER AWARDS: This project makes every attempt to award students based on their participation efforts. Therefore, prizes are not awarded solely on the amount of funds raised, or laps run, by a given student. Student participants who achieve a minimum score of 3 points (with at least one sponsor and one lap) will receive the Participation Award. All enrolled students and paid staff who achieve an RFA score of 30 points or more will be presented the Run For The Arts T-shirt. Students who have earned the T-shirt, will also receive the Participation Award.

GRAND PRIZES: First and second place grand prizes are awarded to the student with the highest and second highest RFA scores at their school, provided that at least 10 students at their school have scores of 3 or higher. In case of a tie, duplicate prizes may be awarded (as supplies last).

PAID SPONSORS: A person may sponsor a runner only once. Students should not sponsor each other. In order to be counted toward the participant's score, sponsors must (a) be registered on this sponsor sheet before deadline #1; (b) either contribute a suggested minimum of $1.00 or pledge a suggested minimum of 25 cents per lap; and (c) have their payments collected by the participant (or participant's parent) before deadline #2. Contributions received after deadline #1 will be credited to the school's Run account; however, late contributions will not be considered when determining prize eligibility.

THE RUN: Laps must be one-quarter-mile in length. The running time limit is 30 minutes maximum for all participants. Each school selects its own Run For The Arts site.

If there are any questions about these rules, ask the Run For The Arts Coordinator at your school or contact Young Audiences: 503.225.5900 • 360.693.1829

Dear Parents,

Young Audiences has brought the arts to schools since 1958. We couldn't do it without the support of you and the other Run For The Arts parents!

During the past school year, Young Audiences has brought artists to over 100,000 students at participating schools. At a time when the arts are vanishing from our classrooms, your support for the Run For The Arts is especially needed.

Thank you for enriching your child's education through your encouragement and involvement.
